Course overview

The course is divided into five modules which include key legal information, illustrative and nuanced real-life scenarios, quick knowledge checks, and a final comprehensive assessment. It should take you 1 hour or less to complete.

Upon conclusion of all modules and achieving a minimum score of 80% on the final assessment, you will be awarded a certificate of completion applicable to your company policy requirements.